MEDIA RELEASE

Bairnsdale Secondary College Senior Concert Band/Swing Band performing at the Nhill Memorial Community Centre

On Friday 30 November 2018 Community members will have the rare opportunity to enjoy live, big band music in Nhill with Hindmarsh Shire hosting the Bairnsdale Secondary College Senior Concert Band / Swing Band at the Nhill Memorial Community Centre. The band, consisting of 35 student and 5 adult performers, will play two concerts at the Community Centre with a matinee performance followed by an evening show.

“The Bairnsdale Secondary College Band / Swing Band has participated in an end of year music tour for the past 30 years following the completion of their exams. In previous years the bands have toured across Victoria and also interstate with performances in Sydney, the Gold Coast and central Australia. The Bands learn and perform a wide range of music to suit primary and secondary students as well as an extensive repertoire to suit the general public” said Hindmarsh Shire Council Mayor Cr Ron Ismay.

Cr Ismay added “This year the Bands are travelling to Adelaide with several performances along the way. The bands will start in Geelong followed by concerts in Mount Gambier, Kingston, Victor Harbour, Adelaide, Nhill, Lara and a final performance in Geelong before returning home to Bairnsdale”.

Bairnsdale Secondary College Senior Concert Band/Swing Band will be performing at the Nhill Memorial Community Centre on Friday 30 November 2018. The Bands will be showcasing their talents in two performances. Performance 1 will commence at 1:30pm – 2:30pm followed by a second performance at 7:00pm – 8:30pm. Entry into each performance is by gold coin donations.
