MEDIA RELEASE

Jade Hurley

To perform at Hindmarsh Seniors Country Concert

Hindmarsh Shire Council is excited to announce that legendary Australian singer, musician Jade Hurley OAM will be performing at this year's Seniors Concert as part of the Victorian Seniors Festival.

The theme of the October 2018 Victorian Seniors Festival is – 'Get Social' which will enable seniors across Victoria with many opportunities to attend celebrations and events to help celebrate communities and the rich array of social, cultural, educational and healthy living activities they offer.

Hindmarsh Shire Council Mayor, Cr Ron Ismay said, "Hindmarsh Shire Council is pleased to be supporting the Seniors Festival again in 2018 and on behalf of Council, I would like to extend an invitation to all our seniors to come together and enjoy the celebrations .

Cr Ismay added "If you are over 60 it's time for you to get out and celebrate with good food and company at a fabulous social event by embracing the theme 'Get Social' - so we encourage you to do just that".

Seniors from across Hindmarsh Shire will have the opportunity to attend and participate in this special social event which will be held at the Nhill Memorial Community Centre on Wednesday 24 October 2018 commencing at 11.00am.

Cr Ismay said, "We are very excited to have an entertainer of the calibre of Jade Hurley performing in Hindmarsh. He is probably best remembered for his regular appearances on The Mike Walsh Show during the 70s and early 80s with his Golden Oldens music segment where his performances were mostly classic covers - from the 50s and 60s rock-n-roll and country music genres".

Tickets are available from Dimboola, Jeparit, Nhill and Rainbow Customer Service Offices.

Alternatively bookings can be made by calling 5391 4444 if you require tickets to be mailed. Entry into the concert is by gold coin donation, which includes a light lunch, and is payable at the venue.

Transport via bus is available from Dimboola, Jeparit and Rainbow for senior residents of Hindmarsh Shire. Bookings for transportation by bus are essential and can also be made at any of the Customer Service Centre's when booking tickets to the concert.

The concert is open to all Hindmarsh Shire Council residents' however seating preference will be given to seniors.

Funding from the Victorian Government for the Victorian Seniors Festival along with support from Hindmarsh Shire Council has enabled the running of the concert, buses and catering.
